

Amber Trincado

Practice Focus

- Products Liability
- Toxic Torts
- Environmental Contamination

Representative Clients

- Chevron U.S.A., Inc.
- The Dow Chemical Company
- Dow AgroSciences, LLC

Admitted to Practice

- California State Bar – 2008
- United States District Court for the Northern District of California
- United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit

Education

- J.D., magna cum laude, University of California, Hastings College of the Law, 2008
- B.A., magna cum laude, Sonoma State University, 2005

In Brief

Ms. Trincado is an associate in our Oakland office. Her practice focuses primarily on complex civil, toxic tort, environmental contamination and products liability matters.

Ms. Trincado received her J.D., magna cum laude, from the University of California, Hastings College of the Law, in 2008. There, she was a member of the Thurston Honor Society and was elected to the Order of the Coif. Additionally, she served as Senior Production Editor for the Hastings Law Journal and interned for the Work/Life Law Center. She also received the CALI Excellence for the Future Award in Employment Discrimination. Ms. Trincado received her B.A., magna cum laude, from Sonoma State University in Economics in 2005.

Representative Matters

Ms. Trincado is currently part of a team defending The Dow Chemical Company and Dow AgroSciences, LLC in a complex coordinated proceeding regarding municipal well contamination throughout California.

Honors & Awards

- Order of the Coif
- Thurston Honor Society
- University of California, Hastings College of the Law, Academic Excellence Award
- CALI Excellence for the Future Award in Employment Discrimination for the Highest Grade in the Class
- Sonoma State University, Child Economic Scholarship

Associate

Oakland, CA

P 510.444.3131

F 510.839.7940

atrincado@filicebrown.com