Filice Brown Eassa & McLeod LLP specializes in civil litigation, trials and appeals. We manage a wide range of difficult and challenging issues in complex cases through all stages of the litigation life cycle. When it comes to litigation, jury trials, appeals, alternative dispute resolution and coordinating counsel work, FBE&M is the choice for integrity, experience and efficiency.

Mission & History

Integrity. Experience. Efficiency. These concepts are key to a successful attorney-client relationship, and they are the foundation of our philosophy at Filice Brown Eassa & McLeod LLP.

We provide complete litigation and trial services. Our attorneys have extensive experience managing complex cases through all stages of the litigation life cycle, from evaluation of claims, discovery, settlement discussions and other forms of alternative dispute resolution, through trying cases to verdict and managing appeals. Our experienced trial lawyers also serve as litigation coordinating counsel for a number of multi-national corporations.

Founded in 1999, Filice Brown Eassa & McLeod LLP specializes in meeting the unique litigation needs of our clients. The founding partners recognized the need for a specialized, singular focus on complex litigation issues.

Our excellent staff and internal operations provide critical support to the specialized requirements of both our attorneys and our clients, resulting in solid experience and efficiency, which is why we have consistently attracted challenging and stimulating work.

Integrity. Experience. Efficiency. What you rightly expect, what our clients demand and what we deliver.
